

AMERICAN FILTRATION & SEPARATIONS SOCIETY

MAY 1-3 • GALT HOUSE HOTEL • LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

Dr. Wu Chen

Dr. Wu Chen is an R&D Fellow at Dow. He has 35 years of industrial experience in solid/liquid separation, gas/air filtration and other process technologies. He also has expertise in process design, project management, production plant startup and operation. Recently he has engaged in sustainability challenges like carbon reduction, water sustainability, and plastic circularity.

He is currently the chair of AFS Education Committee and the coordinator of AFS short courses. He has served as the chair of AFS Board of Directors, conference chairs, local chapter officers and various committee members. His was awarded the AFS Frank Tiller Award for outstanding technical achievements, AFS Well Shoemaker Award for leadership and service to the filtration industry and Fellow Member Award for sustained significant contributions to fluid/particle separation technologies and filtration industry.